

Investment pays off for St. Mary's Academy CBS team

CONGRATULATIONS TO Fifth Year Economics students, Brian Cashin, Jordan Lowry, Cormac Mullins and John Whelan who finished second in the team section of the Setanta Asset Management/Irish Independent Student Investment Competition 2007.

The competition, which attracts over 3,000 entries from second and third level students each year, involves the selection of a portfolio of shares/investments from a given list and the monitoring of its performance over a six month period.

The team will be presented with their awards at a prize-giving ceremony in Croke Park on Wednesday, April 25.

■ Students from St. Mary's Academy, Carlow who took part in the Irish Independent Student Investment Challenge and are being presented with their prize at the awards ceremony in Croke Park.
